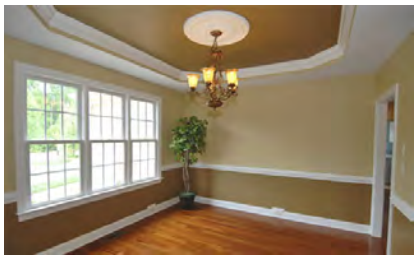
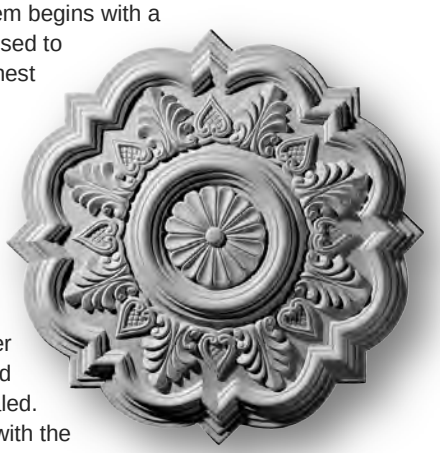
VOLUME III



The Making of Urethane Millwork

IN THE HANDS OF THE MASTER

Our urethane millwork line is made up of both standard industry designs as well as our own unique products. Each item begins with a finely crafted original master, which is then used to make several moulds. Ensuring only the highest quality products, each mould is consistently maintained and then immediately replaced if they show even the slightest signs of wear. This gives us the ability to guarantee that the detail of every product we create is as clean and crisp as the first.



Urethane products are created by first spraying the inside of the mould with a barrier coat of primer. Liquid urethane is then poured into the mould, which is quickly shut and sealed. The urethane expands, hardens, and fuses with the coat of primer. The mould is then unlocked and opened, revealing a perfect duplicate of the original product, complete with a finished coat of primer.

The Artistry of Wood Carving

BORN OF ORIGINAL DESIGN

A true carved wood product is authentic as millwork items get. Every wood carving that we carry has been carefully designed to match either historic or contemporary architectural elements. Our vast collection of architectural woodcarvings is sure to meet any design requirements you may have.

As the manufacturer of our products, we have direct control over the quality of wood utilized in all of our carvings. All our raw materials are equal to or higher quality than required by such organizations as AWI, NHLA, KCMA, and The Hardwood Council and only the strongest Type-1 waterproof glue is used in the production of our wood products. With our high quality control standards, we monitor each step of the manufacturing process to ensure both the natural beauty and the quality needed to stand the test of time.

Architectural Millwork Specifications

1.1 Product Description

1.1.1 Our Urethane products are made with high density polyurethane with an overall density similar to white pine at 13 to 17 pounds per cubic foot. Our Urethane process provides a greater skin density than core density for increased durability.

1.1.2 All products are manufactured with a white or semi-white color coating. Further, these products receive a primer coat finish before they are shipped to customers. The combination of the integral shell-like skin, the barrier coat, and the primer top coat provide an excellent substrate for durable finishes.

1.1.3 Ultra violet rays do not affect properly coated products.

1.1.4 The compressive strength of polyurethane products falls within the 300-400 P.S.I. range. (The parts are not intended for structural use).

1.1.5 The tensile strength of polyurethane products falls within the 350-400 P.S.I. range. (The parts are not intended for structural use.)

1.1.6 The degree of flexibility of any given polyurethane product is determined by the size and shape of its cross section.

1.1.7 Our Urethane has a closed cell structure which provides protection from most solvents and renders it almost completely hydrophophic. It will not rot.

1.1.8 All Our Urethane products resist the growth of mildew and fungus and further provide no nutritional value for other organisms such as small rodents.
